

NJPEA RULES FOR NJ BRED AWARDS

1. Horses must meet the definition of Jersey Bred as defined by the NJ Equine Advisory Board and must also comply with their basic guidelines.
2. Owners must be members in good standing with current dues paid to PHBA. In the case of multiple ownership, all owners must be members of PHBA.
3. All horses must be nominated with NJPEA. Proper forms must be executed and sent to the designated NJ Bred Chairman. No points will be accumulated prior to nomination of horse.
4. In the case of an eligible horse being sold, the animal must be re-nominated by the new owner. In the case of an eligible horse being leased, the lessee must be a member as outlined in #2, and all points and awards will be given to the lessee. (A) Any points accumulated by different consecutive owners will stay with the horse, providing all the owners have complied with all of the rules. (B) Halter points on stallions which have been gelded will be voided when and if said horse is shown as a gelding. (C) NJ Bred Awards will be given to the PHBA recorded owner, or lessee, as of the final eligible pointed show, providing they have met all requirements.
5. Shows to count towards these awards are: (A) All shows recognized by PHBA and NJPEA held in the state of NJ which offers all eligible classes for the NJ Bred Awards. You must enter and compete in all the specific classes at the NJPEA designated Jersey Bred show that you intend to be eligible for at the end of the year. All horses must participate under at least half of the judges for that entire show year to be eligible for these awards. In the event that a nominated horse cannot attend the NJPEA Jersey Bred show for medical reasons, a veterinarian's certificate is required. It must be dated on or before the start of the horse's competition and be postmarked within 5 days of the competition. This must be supplied to the show manager and NJPEA NJ Bred Chairman on the veterinarian's letterhead and have the signature of the veterinarian. With this, the required attendance will be waived.
7. Point system as follows: 1st – 6 pts, 2nd – 5 pts, 3rd – 4 pts., 4th – 3 pts., 5th – 2 pts., 6th – 1 pt. A sliding scale will be applied in the event there are less than 6 horses in a given class. The horse judged Grand Champion of its sex in any halter class shall receive 2 extra points. The Reserve Champion will receive 1 extra point.
8. Year End Awards will be based on the following: (A) Highest total scores from all approved shows. (B) There will be 1st and 2nd place awards in each class with 60% of the prize money to 1st and 40% to 2nd. (C) In the event of a tie, prize money will be divided as follows: 1st place tie 100% divided evenly among tied parties with no money to any other place. 2nd place tie 60% given to 1st place and the remaining 40% divided evenly among the tied parties.
9. If any conditions set down by these rules are not met, all rights to award will be forfeited.
10. It is the seller's obligation to make the new owner of the horse aware of our breeder awards program and to provide him with the necessary forms for continuation in the program.
